๓. To create a strong and sustainable organizational culture of integrity and transparency (Organization of Integrity) of the civil service system

๔. To determine measures, guidelines and mechanisms to prevent giving/receiving bribes or other benefits

๕. To set guidelines for receiving entertainment or gifts for executives and police officers under Chiangmuan police station to comply with relevant laws and regulations. ๖. To support and enhance operations under the national strategy, master plan, national strategy, and national reform plan on prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct, including being a part of the guidelines for assessing ethics and transparency in government agencies.

Scope of application

Applicable to police officers under the jurisdiction of Chiangmuan police station.

Definition

“Bribe” means property or other benefits given to a person to make that person act or refrain from acting in a position, whether it is legal or illegal, as desired by the person paying the bribe, including receiving gifts, facilitation fees, tokens of goodwill, receiving donations, receiving entertainment, and similar benefits when offered, given or received that can be reasonably considered as bribes, and including giving or receiving later (receiving gifts in the performance of duties is different from receiving ethically, which means receiving property or other benefits that can be calculated as money from a person on an occasion, festival, or important day. Therefore, receiving gifts, presents, or gratuities in the performance of duties may be considered as receiving bribes).

“Performance of duties” means an action or performance of duties by a government official in a position to which he or she has been appointed or assigned to perform a particular duty or to act in a position to perform a particular duty, both general and specific, as a police officer for whom the law has prescribed the powers and duties, or an action in accordance with the powers and duties specified by law to be the powers and duties of the police.

“Commander” means a person who has the authority and duty to command, supervise, monitor and inspect police officers under his command.

“Subordinates” means all police officers under the jurisdiction of Chiangmuan police station, in addition to the commanding officer.

Policy violation management measures/punitive measures

၁. Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action or criminal prosecution or other relevant laws, including direct supervisors who ignore the misconduct or are aware of the misconduct but do not take appropriate action, which will result in disciplinary punishment up to and including dismissal from the civil service.

၂. Not being aware of this policy announcement and/or relevant laws cannot be used as an excuse for non-compliance.

၃. Supervisors under the Police Department Order No. ၁၂၁၂/၂၆၈၈ dated October ၁, ၁၉၈၉ have the authority and duty to supervise and ensure that subordinates under their supervision strictly adhere to and comply with this policy.

Monitoring and inspection measures

๑. The Superintendent of Chiangmuan police station announces his intention to manage the agency honestly, transparently and in accordance with the principles of good governance by disseminating the information to police officers under his command and external stakeholders.

๒. The commanding officers under the Police Department Order No. ๑๒๑๒/๒๕๓๗ dated October ๑, ๑๙๙๔ have the authority and duty to supervise, monitor and inspect subordinate police officers under his command to comply with this announcement. ## Measures to protect complainants/informants/witnesses and maintain confidentiality

๑. Consideration of complaints shall specify the confidentiality level and protect the relevant persons according to the regulations on the preservation of government secrets B.E. ๒๕๔๔. When submitting a case to the agency for consideration, the informant and the complainant may suffer. For example, a complaint against a civil servant shall initially be considered a government secret. If it is a suspicious card, only cases that clearly state evidence, circumstances, and witnesses shall be considered. The reporting of influential persons shall conceal the name and address of the complainant. If the name and address of the complainant are not concealed, the relevant agency shall be notified and the complainant shall be protected as follows: “The commander shall exercise discretion and order as appropriate to protect the complainant, witnesses, and persons who provide information in the investigation, so that they do not suffer harm or injustice that may arise from the complaint, being a witness, or providing information.” In cases where the accused person’s name is specified, both the complainant and the accused must be protected because the matter has not yet gone through the fact-finding process and may be considered as a harassment accusation that causes distress and damage. In cases where the complainant states in the petition to conceal or does not wish to disclose the complainant's name, the agency must not disclose the complainant's name to the accused agency because the complainant may suffer harm as a result of the complaint. Informing influential persons must conceal the name and address of the complainant. If the name and address of the complainant are not concealed, the relevant agency must be informed and the complainant must be protected as follows: "The commander must exercise discretion and order appropriately to protect the complainant, witnesses, and persons who provide information in the investigation, so that they do not suffer harm or injustice that may arise from the complaint, being a witness, or providing such information." In the case where the accused is named, both the complainant and the accused must be protected because this matter has not yet gone through the fact-finding process and may be a harassment accusation that causes distress and damage. In the case where the complainant states in the request to conceal or does not want the complainant's name to be disclosed, the agency must not disclose the complainant's name to the complaining agency because the complainant may suffer distress as a result of the complaint.

๒. When a complaint is filed, the complainant and witnesses will not be subject to any action that affects their work or livelihood. If any action is necessary, such as separating the workplace to prevent the complainant, witness, and accused from meeting, the consent of the complainant and witness must be obtained.

๓. Requests from the injured party, the complainant, or witness, such as requests to transfer workplaces or methods to prevent or solve problems, should be considered by the responsible person or agency as appropriate.

๔. Provide protection for the complainant from harassment.
